

ADULT EDUCATION SERIES

Do you want to share your knowledge or expertise with other adults? Helping others learn is one of life's more rewarding experiences. If you want to teach adults successfully and enjoyably, this three-part series is for you. The series was developed to provide you with proven techniques for preparing, conducting and improving your class. $89 + GST per course

Instructor: B. Mol

Understanding the Adult Learner

Understanding the characteristics of the typical adult learner is the basis for the successful delivery of your course. Learn techniques that promote adult learning and discover effective approaches to solve typical problems that adult educators face.

Course code: ITR 040, CRN: 80974

Feb. 13, Sat, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Effective Course Design

Learn about best practices and the tools used to plan and construct an excellent course from deciding on a course of action to curriculum and teaching plans to evaluation.

Course code: ITR 042, CRN: 80675

Feb. 27, Sat, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Managing the Adult Learning Environment

Learn how to create and maintain a healthy classroom environment - the kind of environment in which you can teach and the adult learner feels comfortable, secure and able to learn.

Course code: ITR 041, CRN: 80676

Mar. 13, Sat, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Bruce Mol has 25 years experience training adults; designing, developing and delivering training in the classroom or in a variety of media options. Bruce has a Provincial Instructors Diploma (PID), a diploma in Adult Education (A.Ed.), and a Masters in Education (M.Ed.) in Curriculum Design and Educational Leadership from SFU.

Continuing Studies

North Okanagan – Vernon

www.okanagan.bc.ca/cs

WINTER/SPRING
2010

Imagine what you can do...